

Privacy Policy Ad Connect

Thank you for visiting our website www.adconnect.online We prioritize clarity and transparency. If you're interested in our services, please use the provided contact form.

Information and Security

As a company, we are obligated to inform you about how we handle your personal data, why we collect it, and how we ensure its safety. This information is outlined in our Privacy Statement, which aims to be clear, transparent, understandable, and easily accessible. These values align with what we intend to convey through our website - simplicity, richness, openness, clarity, and connection.

Handling Your Data

Rest assured that we treat your data with care, confidentiality, and respect. When you use our contact form or reservation system, we use your information solely for communication purposes. Any personal information you provide remains secure in our protected mailbox.

Types of Personal Data

Your visit to our website, use of our contact form, and engagement with "Ad Connect" services involve the processing of personal data, which may include your first and last name, address, phone number, email address, IP address, and data related to your activities on our website.

Purpose of Data Collection

We collect your data to facilitate communication and improve our services. Your name and contact details are used for maintaining contact, and data analysis helps enhance our website.

Data Protection

Your data is not sold to third parties, and it is not used for creating comprehensive visitor profiles or automated decision-making.

Sharing with Third Parties

We share your data with third parties only when required by law or for legitimate interests, such as regular business operations. These parties may include banks for payment processing, tax advisors for invoice access, and website hosting for storing contact form data.

Data During Website Visits

We use technical and functional cookies to ensure our website functions correctly and provides user-friendly experiences. General visit data, including IP addresses, is tracked using Google Analytics. SEO optimization helps tailor text length based on average visit times.

Cookies for Improved Functionality

Cookies are small text files stored on your computer or mobile device during your initial website visit. You can manage your cookie settings through your internet browser to opt out of cookies, delete stored information, and receive notifications when cookies are sent.

Privacy-Friendly Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to analyze website visit and click behavior. Data is processed and stored by Google in the United States. We anonymize IP addresses, disable data sharing, and avoid combining Google services with Google Analytics.

Data Security

We take data protection seriously. Your data is stored both offline on our PC and encrypted online. Our computer is secured with effective technical measures, and our website employs a reliable SSL certificate.

Data Retention

We keep your data only as long as necessary to achieve its intended purposes. Legal obligations require us to retain administrative records, including invoices with address details, for seven years.

Data Management and Contact

If you have any concerns or wish to access or delete your data, please reach out to us. We aim to address your request within 14 working days. If necessary, you can object to data processing or file a complaint with the Dutch Data Protection Authority.
